Storage Instructions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Store your coffee in either the bag it came in or within an airtight container to prevent oxidation.- If you are storing the coffee directly in an espresso machine hopper, make sure to wipe out the hopper before refilling to remove coffee oils that go rancid over time.- Keep coffee away from direct sunlight or warmth from indoor lighting or above hot ovens, refrigerators and freezers.- Coffee is hygroscopic, meaning it absorbs ambient moisture from the air. Refrigerators are full of moisture filled aromas that your coffee has no issues absorbing.- Do NOT store coffee in your Fridge.
Manufacturer's name and address	Catimor Ltd t/a Redemption Roasters Unit 1 9C York Way, Redemption Roasters, Ground Floor Offices, London N7 9GY
Instructions for use	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Best when consumed within 30 days of Roast date.- Whenever possible, grind fresh just before your brew to further preserve and trap the coffees volatile aromatics.- More developed Roast Coffees require more cleaning. Use a dry cloth to clean grinder hoppers regularly to avoid buildup of oils.
