EDITIONS

Combining innovative design with distinctive colour has always been an essential part of what makes our products special.

Our passion for blending perfect function with beautiful style has led us to the creation of Editions - a brand new collection of bestselling products in the season's most sought after colour palette.

For the launch of this brand new range, we have taken inspiration from the myriad of hues found in the ever-changing skyscape above our heads.

Editions Sky blends calming tones of dusty blue, azure and cumulus grey to create a stylish collection which satisfies the desire for products that bring serenity and relaxation into the home.

If you're searching for the perfect gift idea or to bring a distinctive touch of colour to your kitchen, look no further than the new Editions range.
